When Beth Sawyer's seemingly perfect life falls apart, it only makes sense she would return to Travers Cove, Maine. Since she was a child, the small coastal town has been a source of good memories and she's hoping to find that solace again. Beth plans a summer of peace and relaxation for herself and her son, hoping to move on from a betrayal that still cuts deep. Meeting Jeremy Parrish was not on the agenda, but when he comes into her life, no matter how hard she tries, she can't seem to keep him away. As she struggles to reconcile her past while looking toward her future can she build the life that's best for her son while also doing what's best for herself?
