Simon Sees Corey Carroll

Simon Whitaker has worked hard to live his dream; from owning a franchise of successful health clubs in Washington D.C. to being able to afford most of the toys that a young, single man enjoys. However, most of his spare time and money is spent in a more unusual way... Instilled with an insatiable passion to help other people, Simon disguises himself and blends into the fabric of the poor and destitute. Posing as a stranded motorist, a garbage worker or even homeless Simon rewards those who help him in magnificent ways. There is no limits to the amount of fortune he will use to care for other people. But where does it come from? Who taught him to be so generous? Even Simon doesn't know, until a long lost visitor from his past returns to show him the true origin of his benevolent heart. Yet, not everything is as it seems. Circumstances collide together that threaten to destroy everything that Simon has ever known and tell a story of hope, kindness and redemption.
