Communication: Making Connections (10th Edition) William J. Seiler, Melissa L. Beall, Joseph P. Mazer
For courses in Introduction to Communication.

Connect. Communicate. Thrive.

Communication: Making Connections helps readers make connections in their daily lives, communicate more effectively, and succeed in our ever-changing world. Authors William Seiler, Melissa Beall, and Joseph Mazer balance a thorough—yet straightforward—explanation of basic principles with a solid theoretical foundation, backed by the most up-to-date research. The Tenth Edition has been revised to ensure it is fresher, more useful, and more engaging than previous editions. Relevant examples, thought-provoking questions, and signature boxed features enhance the learning experience and guide readers in mastering their objectives.

Also available with MyCommunicationLab®

MyCommunicationLab for the Introduction to Communication course extends learning online to engage students and improve results. Media resources with assignments bring concepts to life, and offer students opportunities to practice applying what they've learned. Please note: this version of MyCommunicationLab does not include an eText.

Communication: Making Connections, Tenth Edition is also available via REVEL™, an interactive learning environment that enables students to read, practice, and study in one continuous experience.

Oh come on your studying sixth sense already alerted you so why you have to listening to one more sixth sense.

Scott Bourquin:

As a college student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's spirit or real their hobby. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Communication: Making Connections (10th Edition) can make you truly feel more interested
