Things Not To Say! "Stupid, Clever, and Funny Office Remarks That Will Land You in HR -- Say Them At Your Own Risk!" Dave Carrel

Dear Office Dweller and Fine Purveyor of Office Quips & Gibes,

I work in an office with about eight people that are the most hilarious group of folks you would ever meet in your entire life. As a team we're deadly effective at all we do and consider ourselves the best in the business. I'll forego what business we're in just in case someone narcs on us... for what I'm about to divulge.

For the past three years the office squire, a pretty little thing that loves subtle colors and is darn pleasing to the eye...at least all of the buildings' gals think HE is and some of the guys would like to give him a massage has been capturing all of the funny remarks anyone in the office has been saying.

Now, what he was recording we're not just any old run of the mill jokes and funny remarks people were making but comments that we're gut-splitting, unnerving and hilarious at the same time. Unfortunately most of them would land you in Human Resources in a heartbeat.

No context is given to any of the remarks. They are raw, unsullied and unadulterated and are some of the finest the world has seen. But, when you read them they can be used "at your own risk" in a multitude of situations. Or, at the very least....have a party and everyone gets liquored up and then have each person say the comment out loud and just ponder in what context they could be used in.

I guarantee you'll puke your guts out from all of the laughter.

This funny tantalizing treat is only 99 cents. All proceeds will go to taking my wife out (hopefully) once a month to a wild game gourmet restaurant. She normally gets the wild boar that is absolutely delicious and I go for the trifecta of red deer, elk, and buffalo special that gets my testosterone revving in full gear and then I proceed to chase my wife around the island when I get home...and then a "starburst" of feverish excitement ensues.

 >> Oh! One more thing -- Please leave some reviews after you laugh your ass off. And also let me know in the review what kinds of other hilarious situations you would like me to write about and I'll oblige.

I greatly appreciate your time and hopefully this very short laugh fest will make your day.

Without further adieu....Enjoy!

Dave
