El sexto hombre (SERIE NEGRA) (Spanish Edition) Charles Cumming

Uno de los casos de espionaje más impactantes en Inglaterra durante la Guerra Fría fue el de “los cinco de Cambridge”, un grupo de jóvenes reclutados como espías por la Unión Soviética cuando estudiaban en el Trinity College. Entre ellos estaban el célebre Kim Philby, Guy Burgess y el futuro historiador del arte y responsable de la pinacoteca de la reina Anthony Blunt.

Pero ¿hubo un sexto miembro en ese círculo de espías? Sam Gaddis, académico con problemas económicos, recibe la petición de ayuda de una amiga periodista que cree que sí. Él ve en esta investigación la posibilidad de dar un giro positivo a su vida, pero cuando la periodista muere, aparentemente de un ataque al corazón, empieza a ser consciente de que pisa terreno resbaladizo. Porque aunque la Guerra Fría acabó hace ya décadas, quienes entonces movían los hilos siguen teniendo mucho poder y siguen siendo muy peligrosos...

Uno de los mejores thrillers de espionaje escritos en los últimos años, que parte de una hipótesis fascinante –la posible existencia de un sexto miembro del círculo de Cambridge– para crear una trama vertiginosa donde no todo es lo que parece.

Charles Cumming, (Ayr, Escocia, 1971)

Educado en Eton, se graduó en Literatura Inglesa por la Universidad de Edimburgo en 1994. Un año más tarde fue reclutado por MI6, el servicio de inteligencia británico, pero no acabó su periodo de formación y en 1996 se mudó a Montreal. Sus conocimientos sobre el mundo del espionaje le llevaron a escribir su primera obra, A Spy by Nature (2001), a la que siguieron The Hidden Man (2003), The Spanish Game (2006) y Typhoon (2008), con las que se ha convertido merecidamente en uno de los más aclamados escritores de novelas de espionaje. El sexto hombre es una de sus mejores novelas y la primera traducida al castellano.
