Whatever Happens (Second Chances Book 1) Chloe Lexington

The Civil War is over, but the affect of it still ripple through the United States. In a family scarred by the war, Annie Moore has learned how to lean on the Lord through all circumstances. However, when her father gives her hand in marriage to a man she does not know, Annie's faith is put to the test, and the arrival of a young confederate man makes matters worse as Annie tries to find balance between honoring her father and following her heart.
