Rachel thought that Jason was her one true love...how could something so right and planned feel so wrong?

After losing her parents as a baby, Rachel Williams finds her place in the Baker family as one of their own. Wanting to start a family of her own Rachel decides to accept the written proposal of Jason Pratt, a young wealthy farmer who wants to settle down as well.

Rachel decides to head off and finally meet her future husband face to face. It is then that a sudden turn of events takes place and Rachel finds herself in the confusing woes of commitment versus true love...or at least she thinks it is true love. Little does she know that what she thinks and what is fact are so much more different than she realizes. Will Jason be the one for her? Or will she find that love's journey finds it's way down another path...
