We're All Mad Here Leigh Raines

Jade Thompson had the kind of adolescence you would find in a Norman Rockwell painting. But at 19-years-old when her seemingly normal life is flipped on its head, she's forced to take a closer look at the relationships in her life and the decisions she has made. It feels as if she has fallen down a rabbit hole. As she returns to college and stumbles through her new reality, she finds herself more than a little lost. With the help of her 3 closest friends, we spend the year with Jade through her ups and downs where she discovers everyone is a little bit mad in the world.
