Learning to dance in the rain, is an open letter to all those who have fallen short of their goals. It's to those who always seem to be the underdog and never get the breaks. This book answers the age old question, "Lord, Why Me"!

It explores the differences and links between the spirit, soul and body of mankind and what makes them so vital in our pursuits of happiness. This book is loaded with stories of victory, from seemingly defeated people who decided to try one more time.

Learning to dance in the rain, will give you hope to keep going. It will be the nudge that helps you get over the hump of average and on the road to true happiness. You will see examples of modern day people, who made decisions to break away from the life they no longer wanted and move into their destiny. You will see their struggles, how they felt and eventually what made them keep going.
