The Boy Next Door G. Breyner-Wade

When sexy middle-aged John Dean finds out his boyfriend has been cheating on him behind his back, he finds himself unexpectedly back in the game after a number of years. He decides to shape up and move on, and see who's out there for an older guy like him. Lucky for him, renting a house in a new neighborhood drops the perfect neighbor in John's lap.

Graham is his 18-year old virgin neighbor - young, hot, lacking in experience - but evidently willing to learn. So what is a guy to do? When John catches Graham secretly checking him out, he decides to test the waters, waking to find Graham standing over him with lust in his eyes. He realises he might just get the opportunity to get into the young man's pants after all.

This 5500-word novella contains graphic depictions of oral and anal sex between an inexperienced twink and an older, experienced man. Reader discretion is advised.
