It's gonna be a hot summer...

Willow Parker wants it all: the sexy guy, the city apartment, and--most importantly--the high-profile job. But when the ambitious recent grad loses her footing on the career ladder, the other two elements in her trifecta of success start to fade away, too. With only an increasingly distant boyfriend and unaffordable apartment holding her back, Willow heads to the land of bonfires and canoes for a summer of temp work and free lodging at a summer camp. Her only neighbor is Jack, a hippie guy who's so relaxed he just might make goal-driven Willow insane.

Oh, and he's her boss.

Will laid-back Jack send Willow running back to a hot summer in the city... or will sparks fly by the campfire?

*This is a contemporary romance with realistic language and sex scenes that reflect the lives of characters in their twenties. Due to language and sexual situations, this book is suited for adult readers 18+.

This book is a full length novel with 60,000+ words.

Although there will be additional Wild Hearts books, they are only a "series" in that similar characters and themes will be followed. Don't worry, this is NOT a series where each book has a cliffhanger ending! Wild Wood is a standalone book.
