My mother's life in her own words about growing up in a tourist home in Richmond, Virginia, surviving spousal abuse, and meeting a new love and playing in a band after she retired to Florida. Content is from a large cut-and-paste memory album she made for me. Also, a few other stories about her life that were written for a creative writing class (found after she died), and some words from me about my father and my experience living with depression and anxiety.
