Too Far Gone S. Johnson

With a drug addicted mother, April cries out for help through her journal writing. Buried secrets explode through her pen as she leads us into her deepest and darkest thoughts and emotions. With hidden dreams of living a “normal” life; husband and children someday, Bruce, a perfect stranger, interrupts everything. April’s abandoned heart gets captured as he puts her old high school flame to rest; sweeping April right off her feet. Experience April’s transition into adulthood as she and Bruce travel the world in luxury. Bruce will feed her addictive genetic trait with sex and every material possession April has ever craved. April is on cloud nine until Bruce unveils his true colors. This short-lived romantic fairytale quickly turns into an abusive horror scene sending April into her greatest fear of all.
