A Short Introduction to the Baha'I Faith Moojan Momen

The Baha'i faith has, in its short 150-year history, succeeded in establishing itself in every country of the world, yet many people are unfamiliar with Baha'i history and beliefs. This work surveys the teachings of the Baha'i faith, as they relate to the individual, to society and to the world as a whole, and explores the Baha'i belief in the oneness of all religions and the need for world peace. It features sections on personal spirituality, family and community life, worship and festivals and social and theological teachings.
