How often we think that our best years are behind us and that not much interesting or exciting lies in front of us. Judith Horky touches all of us -- young and old, in this inspiring book for women. Within the first few pages, she takes us on the journey of her life through the limitations and the breakthroughs. The book is about each of us, daughter, mother or grandmother, who want to realize all that life has to offer. Her book presents a light-hearted view of what it's like to be a woman growing older in a world that idolizes youth. Her anecdotes bring laughter and her words ring true. Nothing is set in stone, even as an older woman. The possibilities are endless and the choices we make from this point on can lead to happy, healthy years ahead with the benefit of looking back at all our experiences from a wiser perspective. Truly an empowering work to be shared with all women.
