Making marriage work is not easy especially when one of the spouses is suffering from a passive aggressive personality disorder. “Making Marriage Work with a Passive Aggressive Husband” is a story of a couple, Bernard and Martha, whose married lives had been on a rough path since day one. Martha never imagined her husband to be so irrational and hard to handle. There were times she thought of giving up and leaving him, but finally she found a better way out.

This story is a case study of how to live with a passive aggressive man and help him overcome the passive aggressive behavior. The best way to make your marriage work is to abandon your selfishness and try not to put blame on your spouse. Your love and understanding can always help you overcome the problems; and it is a good practice to seek advice from marriage counselors and/or get help from therapists. This may take a lot of sacrifice at the beginning but the results will be worth your every single attempt.
