Why? Why me? What have I done to find such favor with God? I have no idea. As far as I can tell, I've just lived an ordinary life--until now. And I wonder... Could I have refused? Would the angel simply have moved on to another village, another girl who found favor in God's eyes? Would she be as full of questions as I am? Once again, the one question I am afraid to ask slips into my thoughts: Can I do this? Can I be the mother of God's Son? Even if another angel were to appear before me, I do not think I could be any more frightened than I am now.
