The Price of Loyalty Elayna Shante

Born and raised in the slums of West Philadelphia, Rita wasn't no stranger to the street life. In fact she indulged in the fast life, getting money from selling drugs, just as hard as the men she competed with. But, Rita had no idea what she was getting herself into, falling for a man she met only 24 hours ago. It wasn't no surprise, that her financial growth brought along the drama of having to protect her money from the many wolves the city of Philly bred. At the same time she never knew the true meaning of loyalty, until she met Dave, a man that when it came down to the choosing between love or loyalty, he chose loyalty first and made love work second, all by which came after finding out, that the woman he fell in love with, was also the woman he was about to kill. Unfortunately, Dave's best friend, Lump, didn't understand the concept of being a true and loyal friend. He allowed his lustfilled ways to contradict everything the word loyalty stood for and paid a heavy price for it. The Price Of Loyalty will have you re-evaluating the bond of friendship and will make you think twice about accumulating street money. This book put loyalty to the test and with drugs, murder, sex and mayhem working at its best. This quick thriller will have ya jaw dropping.
