Coaching Ministry Teams: Leadership and Management in Christian Organizations Kenneth O. Gangel

This is a book about coaching, but in a field far more important than football, basketball, or baseball. When it comes to effective discipleship, it takes a discipler, a coach, who is capable of not only leading by example, but also empowering his "players" to stay the course. In fifteen practical chapters, Coaching Ministry Teams by Christian education expert Kenneth Gangel examines, among other topics, the attitudes in "The Heart of a Champion," leadership modeling in "Setting the Standard for the Team," and strategic planning in "Looking Down the Field."
