A Brion On Every Mountain: Descendants of Abraham Brion Vada L. (Brion) Koch

In 1741 Jacob Brion, from the Alsace, landed in Philadelphia with his brother Abraham. Three of his sisters came to Pennsylvania and it is assumed that two of them accompanied the two brothers but women and children were not recorded on the ship's passenger lists. This genealogy is a Register Report of three of his grandsons and their descendants. These three grandsons and their wives settled in the area around Liberty, Pennsylvania. These 2,800 descendants represent a fraction of Jacob's descendants.
