Love. Betrayal. Vengeance . . . and a dirty little secret.

Colin Taylor has it all, a loving family, money, and a successful career with Chicago investment firm, Acira Financial. But when a woman is found brutally murdered in her North Side apartment, his worry-free life is shattered, and all clues lead back to him.

Desperate to clear his name, Colin makes every effort to find out who the real killer, or killers, might be as the police intensify their focus on bringing him down. But his life takes an even more terrifying turn when he's confronted by a master criminal known as the Negotiator, the callous face of Chicago's underworld.

Now, Colin risks losing everything that is dear to him, including his beautiful wife, Amy, and daughters, Gillian and Amber, unless he gives what is being demanded of him. But every choice has its consequences, and Colin soon learns that the stakes have never been higher as he hurries to save himself and his family before it's too late.

Will Colin be able to save the ones he loves or has his family's fate already been sealed?

Full of the nail-biting suspense that characterized Alex Dean's previous books, THE CLIENT is an engrossing, page-turning story of murder, lust, money, and revenge.
