Crash - Part Two Miranda Dawson

In the wake of a startling revelation, Emily will have to decide if her trust in men died the night her older brother did...

After learning Carter's identity, Emily swears off men—or at least, men who lie to her like he did. But fate has other plans, and soon she finds herself pulled into his orbit again, unable to tear herself away from the potent magnetism of his passion.

As tensions rise in both her professional and personal life, she seeks solace in his arms, certain that he is the one thing she can count on. But trust is a delicate thing. Will Carter's love serve to strengthen it, or will Emily's painful memories drive them apart?
