Have you ever felt that this planet is boring? I mean all we ever do is get up, eat lame food and trudge our way back and forth to places where people yell at us. But perpetual boredom is not inescapable: Oak Trees, talking Hams, Railroad Elites, Ducks, Beavers, Politicians, Sperm Whales, Kittens and Kitten relate products all have great fun on a daily basis. This fun can be your fun. Life is full of decisions and your first decision revolving around this book will be to read it or to eat it. If you decided to read it, you will find a bevy of pranks and jokes that will keep you entertained and keep you in front of a mob of villagers with torches. Ever wondered what would happen if you tied tiny Communist slogans to backs of Bees? Or have you considered what might occur if you dressed all your employees as Ninja's and walked onto cable news? What about dressing as a Narwhale for Arbor Day or playing around with your co-workers by dressing monochromatically and changing your hairstyles dramatically. We all know these are uncertain times: the Economy is in trouble the Biosphere trashed and both the French and Ottoman Empires have fallen. But boredom cannot be allowed to survive. Craig from Acre says to buy this book. Nolita says I am a Space-Time Anomaly, Silpa does not think I am funny, James Harvey is baking bread. All agree on one thing: ducks are on duck ponds.
