Because no one is listening!

Remi Calder is a satisfied woman who believes she has everything she desires—until she sees Eadan Fleming for the first time. The fact that he hires her to redecorate his flat presents many opportunities for her to spend time with the man, and she's in heaven. Wanting to make herself more attractive in order to catch his eye, she decides she needs to change her appearance. Pairing up with a neighboring youngster who's in the pits of despair from her bullying peers, they share their struggles to lose the excess weight that makes them both so unhappy. Will he notice?

Eadan Fleming is taken with the gentle genius and gorgeous spirit of his new designer. He's looking forward to spending time with a woman who cares more about sharing a wonderful meal with her escort than worrying about her thin shape. Deciding that the stunning beauties he's spent his last few years trying to understand are a thing in the past, he happily makes the choice that his next woman will be nicely rounded—and Remi Calder fits his dream woman perfectly. Except the gutsy woman is flesh and blood...
