John Cheever. Diarios (Spanish Edition) John Cheever

Cuando John Cheever, ganador de un National Book Award y un Premio Pulitzer, murio en 1982, dejo tras de si veintinueve cuadernos de notas que habia empezado a escribir en los anos cuarenta y continuo durante mas de tres decenios. Su compromiso cotidiano con estos diarios fue un elemento central en su vida, como elemento de trabajo y como refugio. En ellos se percibe claramente la voluntad de comprenderse mejor, no tanto como escritor cuanto como ser humano. Vivo el presente, escribio, el presente me da mi sustancia, mi esencia, el nucleo de mi utilidad. Pero tambien fue un compendio de ambigüedades, una masa de emociones que lo arrastraban en direcciones diferentes. Quería a su mujer y a sus tres hijos, pero se sentía extremadamente solo; se odiaba por su afición a la bebida, pero gran parte de su vida dependió de ella; amaba a las mujeres, pero también a los hombres. Leer este libro es adentrarnos en la íntima sinceridad de sus palabras, en la angustia de un creador atormentado por la fragilidad de su talento, en la afanosa búsqueda de un atisbo de claridad en el confuso torbellino de su vida.
