Johnny, We Hardly Knew Ye McCarthy-Powers-O'Donnel

Third Printing, 1972. Hardcover with fair dust jacket. Kenneth P. O'Donnell - David F. Powers with Joe McCarthy, Authors. Gold boards with gilt lettering on a green square on the spine. There is a hairline crease on the dust jacket inside flap, like when someone closed the book and accidentally caught the dust jacket flap and creased it. Little Brown and Company, Publishers. The Green endpages show age fading lightly. Total 434 pages. Printed in the USA. The spine is tight and straight, the pages are clean and free of markings other than the previous owner's name on the title page. This is an Out of Print book. See our photo of this book, it does not look exactly like the one showing on Amazon.com, ours is a full length photo of Kennedy standing with a business suit on and smiling. The dust jacket is deep green with gold, red and white lettering. The book is in good condition, the jacket is in fair condition with several tears, one taped, edge wearing on corners and edges and light rubbing. "Through the eyes of these firsthand observers we witness insights into Kennedy the man, the tension and agony of the Cuban missile crisis, his love of Irish songs and Gaelic poetry, the machinations leading to the selection of Johnson as the vice presidential candidate in 1960, the witty and truly personal replies he wrote to curious schoolchildren's questions, the Vienna meeting with Khrushchev." Another excellent John F. Kennedy book that you can add to your personal library or give to a Kennedy fan! This is true history that you will want to know about and be able to share that knowledge.
