"A /f ANY reasons," continues the Journal, "had / determined us to remain at Fort Clatsop 1 T A till the 1st of April. Besides the want of fuel in the plains on the Columbia, and the impracticability of passing the mountains before the begining of June, we were anxious to see some of the foreign traders, from whom, by means of our ample letters of credit, we might recruit our exhausted stores of merchandise. About the middle of March, however, we became seriously alarmed for the want of food: the elk, our chief dependence, had at length deserted their usual haunts in our neighbourhood, and retreated to the mountains. We were too poor PREPARATIONS FOR HOME ROUTE 169 to purchase other food from the Indians, so that we were sometimes reduced, notwithstanding all the exertions of our hunters, to a single day's provisions in advance. The men, too, whom the constant rains and confin...
