Murder inK Publishing, located in Maryland, is anything but your average book publisher. Especially considering seven of their employees are assigned "special" jobs as contracted killers. When the youngest member of the crew, Rayne, finds herself in a bit of trouble, Twila steps in to help. Will the rest of the group need to lend a hand to ensure none of the executives of the company find out about this? Or will Twila be able to help her friend out of this mess, without the aid of five experienced assassins?
