Please note: this is a novelette. Flash fiction is a fun and quick read, not a full length novel.

Hannah and Harry continue their summer working at the animal shelter. With dozens of kittens needing homes, they certainly have their work cut out for them.

When a series of dogs are reported missing, Hannah worries that there might be more to their disappearances than meets the eye. She starts investigating, trying to get to the bottom of it.

Dealing with her first official date with Harry, too many kittens to handle, and a mother intent on sending her crazy, Hannah has her hands full.

In the second installment of the Hairy Tail series, find out how Hannah is spending her summer. A fun tale that will have you begging and rolling over for more.
