This light, uplifting book is a tribute to the sensational talk-show host who captured the hearts of millions, becoming a phenomenon internationally. Although geared towards fans of David Letterman, its unique style makes it appropriate for anyone with a sense of humor who enjoys a good laugh. Those with an eye for beauty will find the hilarious illustrations captivating. When you open the pages, get ready to have your funny bone tickled. Laugh and have a great time by sharing some of this talk-show host's most memorable moments. Typically children laugh with abandon. All the wonderful, colorful children's books reflect this. So it seemed high time to create a children's book for adults to draw out childlike and playful qualities which are so enticing and attractive. Anyone from 9 to 90 can sit down and enjoy it, sharing the contagious effects of laughter. Adults can read it to children and children can read it to adults to strengthen family ties. Laugh and lighten up! Over a 30 year span, the legendary Letterman entertained us, infusing our lives with fun. Millions laughed late each night because of his genius with jokes and clever comedic nature. Laughter is the best medicine because it lightens the heart. It magically sugar coats life. This book reminds us of the transformative power of humor, so laugh at the silly antics in these pages while also extending gratitude to the master of laughter. This book will dazzle readers the way the talk-show host's brilliant one-liners dazzled fans for decades. So flip through the pages and have fun. Strengthen your health with the healing effects of laughter. Look more beautiful because a happy, smiling face is more attractive than a frown. Always keep "an attitude of gratitude" by remembering how fortunate we are for the opportunity to turn on a TV late at night and smile. This book also acknowledges fans who have expressed sentiments about the retirement of David. Whenever you miss David, pick up this book and remember the ways he has enriched our lives. Place the book on top of the TV, look at it at 1135 each night and remember his colorful moments with this colorful book. Most importantly, keep the book under a spotlight because David Letterman stood under a spotlight for decades. In this way, his humor will continue to shine within us and through us. And always remember "Laughter brings health our greatest wealth". Best wishes to fans, best wishes to this talk-show host icon and may the legend continue through this book!
