Lesbian: The First Time - Learning How to Love a Woman

Kennie Hendon is new to Portland after a rather sudden move, seeking the comfort and safety of her uncle and his family. She gets a job at his bar and everything seems to fall into place as she adjusts to a new life. That is, until she sees Lacey Kinsley for the first time on her first night on the job.

Singer of the main bar band and gorgeous, Lacey captivates her with her bold personality and intense blue stare. She seems to come with a warning label, as various new coworkers seem to warn her against knowing her too well.

The thing is, Kennie has never been with a woman even though there's been feelings about it in the past. Her experience with men isn't even all that good, so what does she have to offer this woman that clearly oozes sexual intensity in every room that she enters?

Will the flame be worth the fire? Will Kennie get burned if she gives in to her strong desires and carnal needs?
