Victory At Sea Matthew Sprange

Victory at Sea is a completely new tabletop war game based on naval warfare in World War II. Featuring very simple rules that take 10 minutes to learn while at the same time offering a depth that will make each game tactically enjoyable, this game follows in the same mould as the incredibly popular Babylon 5: A Call to Arms. In addition to including both basic and advanced rules, complete fleet lists are also detailed as is a comprehensive campaign system with the ability to re-create historical engagements. While a range of high quality metal ships will be made available in squadron box form, this main game provides a player with everything they need to get playing immediately with card ships available at the rear of the book.
