William Ransfield, the Duke of Carrington, has a reputation for stealing the women of other men...

Unwilling to be tied down, William has a tendency to enjoy the women who are already anchored to another, and the men of those beautiful women have had just about enough. They take their case to the King, and the King decides to restore order in the court. William is to wed Charlotte Parsons, the eldest sister of two orphans.

The only problem is that Charlotte is cold, cruel and dangerous...

Lena Parsons, the youngest sister, has lived in the shadow of Charlotte all her life. Believing herself to not be as pretty or as smart as Charlotte, she lives her life in servitude of her older sister. But when she meets Charlotte's groom-to-be, sparks fly. She irresistibly drawn to the Duke, and he won't stop until she's his.
