Stephen and his son Christian moves into Autumn's house, Stephen has a tall muscular physique and thick broad bones and he was welcomed by Autumn's mother but not so much by Autumn herself. Autumn's mom was beautiful. The type of beautiful that drew people in. She had long, wavy chocolate brown hair, and hazel eyes. Her body was long and thin, but she had the perfect hourglass figure. This book expresses Autumn's hesitation to accept Christian and his dad despite how Christian tried to get along.

Christian's father Stephen soon came and the three of them began to chatter away. She didn't talk at all. No matter how much her mom wanted them to be a happy family, she didn't care. Some feelings could never change and that was how she felt about Stephen and Christian. She was approached by an attractive boy. He had blond hair and brown eyes, giving him an innocent look. The smile he was also displaying to her was also quite beautiful, which made her stomach stir with butterflies.
