The Prophet and His Message: Reading Old Testament Prophecy Today Michael J. Williams

"Of all the characters in the Old Testament, the prophets are probably the most unusual and the most mysterious," writes Michael Williams. Often we get lost in their writings and don't know how to read or apply them.

If you have wanted help in understanding the role of the prophets and the meaning of their writings, you can find that help here. Williams shows how the prophetic books fit into the whole Old Testament, how they relate to the New Testament, and how they are relevant to believers today.

"In this very readable study, Michael Williams not only shows us who and what the Old Testament prophets were in their own context, he also reveals how that understanding helps us to grasp more fully the prophetic ministry of Christ and the prophetic calling of the church. This book will both fix your eyes upon Jesus and challenge you to a greater understanding of what it means to be a faithful Christian in your own setting."

—Iain M. Duguid

"What a joy to see sober reflection on this very important part of Scripture put in a way that everyone can understand." —Richard L. Pratt Jr.
