With two ships under their command, the warbrides engage the aliens in deep space. The odds are against them. Now they have a completely new problem to contend with: a man. After rescuing Seth from the pirate ship, they have to figure out what to do with him.

Seth is stuck on board with a band of desperate fighting women. He's not sure if they want to kill him or make him their mascot. Neither option suits him, as he wants to get home.

Will the warbrides save humanity from the alien harvest? Will the women put aside their differences and learn to fight as one unit? And what about the only man on the Widowmaker?
